Information wanted for a future project.

In one sentence can you tell us 'What church means to me' whether young or slightly more mature! We would love to know. Add your Christian name and age, or you can remain anonymous, but this then shows our diversity across the benefice. Alternatively, would you write an article about good news or the community in your parish, photos are also welcome, but please ensure you have permission from the people in them to have them published, send into Jude or pass on via your churchwarden.

Words of Encouragement
By James Cunniffe

Words from St Ann's Church, Manchester just after the recent terrible bombing carnage:

No body but yours:

Christ has no body but yours'
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks
to do good,
Yours are the hands,
With which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body, now but yours,
no hands, no feet on earth but yours,
yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

(Teresa of Avila 1515 - 1582)
