Words of Encouragement

By Diane Steel

We all have difficult and sad times as we travel on our Christian journey. No one said being a Christian would be easy. Imagine the experience of travelling from triumphant to turmoil, sadness and finally joy all in one week.

What am I talking about? Jesus' journey from his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, his last meal with his disciples, his time spent in the garden of Gethsemane, his trial and finally his ultimate sacrifice. As Christians, in past last week, Holy Week, we will have contemplated the enormity of what Jesus did for us. Why did he do this, well because it was his Heavenly Fathers' plan and ultimately because he loved us so much.

His death on the cross was only part of the ultimate plan. His Resurrection on the 3rd day was the final triumph over evil. So let us on this Easter Day celebrate what Jesus has done for each and everyone of us. The awesome wonder of his Resurrection and finally his Ascension to be with his Father.

Amazing love! How can it be that thou, my God, shouldst die for me?
