Words of Encouragement
By Rod Eggington

I'm a Red Arrows fan.

I love to watch their heart stopping display.

The Red Arrows display team is not just nine aircraft and pilots, it is a team of about 150 people, all with different skills, working to bring us this wonderful display and be ambassadors for the Royal Air Force and Great Britain.

It's a bit like being a disciple of Jesus. We belong to a team who bring the good news of Jesus to people, and share in the work of the church. It's a team with lots of different gifts and talents. We are ambassadors for Jesus and our Church.

Do people see Jesus by watching us?
