Words of Encouragement

By Andrew Baines

Desert Island Bible Chapter

If you were asked which chapter of the Bible you would most like to take to a desert island, assuming you could only take one, I wonder what it would be?

My short list of three (as at today) would be Isaiah 53, 1 Corinthians 13 and roll of drums in first place for the desert island John 14. What incredible encouragement John 14 has for us all. The following words of Jesus are among those that would truly be a lifeline for anyone on a desert island:

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, trust also in me.'

'I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me.'

'If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.'

'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.'

So why not pick your own Top Chapter and turn to it yourself whenever you need God's encouragement? Your choice of chapter may change, but God's love for us never changes. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit will be with us always, particularly when we may feel low and, metaphorically, alone on a desert island.

Collect

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin
and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service,
that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
