Words of Encouragement

By Karen Blakeman

This week we're in the book of Kings with Elijah-God hears us laughing and being happy and is happy for us. He also hears us when we are crying and feeling sad, and His heart goes out to us,

He feels sad and quickly comes close to comfort us with His presence. God will never let us down.
Elijah is being chased by Queen Jezebel.
What images does she conjure up in your mind?
The Urban Dictionary definition of the word 'Jezebel' indicates - She who will do anything and will use anyone to get what she wants.
Everything is falling apart for Elijah and it looks to him like everything he has lived and worked for is also falling apart.

I love the way God deals with Elijah – first the practical, sensible caring. Elijah is taken to a safe place and given sleep, food, more sleep and more food! Thank the Lord for all those practical, caring Christians who act out this kind of loving without any questions, deliberations or advice at this stage!

Elijah is given space and time to come to God at his own pace. We learn that healing cannot be rushed.
Gently when Elijah is ready God asks him what is troubling him and sometimes this needs to be aired more than once. When Elijah was ready to move forward it is only then that God gives direction, encouragement and assurance.

Such amazing advice – Our Lord will always have the answers – be brave, ask and see how your story unfolds. God Bless all.
